

The reason for being on the Do-not-call list is so that unwanted, uninvited calls do not take me from other activities or keep real calls from coming through. I already receive unwanted mail from banks by way of US Postal Service and through spam email. I do not wish to be harassed further.